To Major General William J. Donovan
From John O. Hughes
Subject Harold R. Isaacs

Pursuant to our telephone conversation, I asked Mr. DeVochi of this office to check with Alan Grover, Vice President of "Time and Life". One of the men with whom Grover works very closely knows Isaacs intimately. In this man's opinion, Isaacs is a very solid and substantial citizen, knowledgeable, hard working and an able correspondent of good character. He states that he has recently had occasion to communicate with Isaacs and that his address is:

Three Power Problem
THE UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

July 31, 1944

Dear Bill:

Thank you for your kind note of July 28 inclosing a copy of the OSS report entitled "Three-Power Problem in Iran". I shall study it with great interest and I am confident that it will be very helpful to me.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Edward R. Stettinius, Jr.
Under Secretary of State,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing a paper prepared here on the "Three-Power Problem in Iran". This is an analysis of the nature of the Allied problem in Iran, the special interests of the powers concerned, the degree of Allied collaboration to date, and the prospects for the future solution of the problem.

I understand that this is a matter now under discussion in your Department, and I write you in the hope that the views expressed may be of some value
in that discussion.

Sincerely,

William J. Donovan,
Director.
